

Discount Plans 101

What is a Discount Health Care Plan?

Discount health care plans are not insurance plans. Careington offers discount plans that are intended to complement insurance, or to be offered as a low cost alternative.

Careington discount health care plans provide access to discounts on a variety of health care services and products. With a discount plan, a consumer pays a small monthly fee for access to participating providers who have agreed to give health care products and services at discounted rates.

Why Choose a Discount Health Care Plan

With Careington's discount plans, members can gain control over medical bills and make their money go further. Discount health care plans can enhance your health insurance, reducing costs for services that aren't covered by your insurance plan. Careington discount plans also complement health insurance plans, filling gaps such as prescription drug benefits, chiropractic, dental or vision care which are often not included as part of a health insurance plan.

Careington discount health plans provide low-cost access to the health care you need and discounts that greatly exceed the cost of the plan - with the flexibility of monthly membership. In addition, most of Careington's discount plans include your entire household.

How Consumers Benefit with a Discount Health Care Plan

Members can instantly save on their health care expenses, and Careington offers lifestyle discount plans to help consumers simplify their busy life – and reduce overall stress.
